OmniTicket Network Wins Bid to be Ticketing Solution Supplier for Global Village, the First Park to Open at DUBAILAND™

Orlando, 18 November, 2008 - OmniTicket Network, the worldwide leading provider of admission and venue management systems, has been selected by Tatweer group to be the ticketing solution supplier for Global Village, the first of many Tatweer attractions/venues to open in DUBAILAND™.

DUBAILAND™ is billed as the world's most ambitious leisure, tourism and entertainment destination and will offer world class theme parks, culture, shopping, hospitality and entertainment. OmniTicket Network was selected by Tatweer to provide a comprehensive ticketing solution for Global Village, as well as a complete ticketing solution for the Global Village Expo that takes place in Dubai from November 2008 through February 2009.

"The OmniTicket solution at Global Village Expo, already successfully in production since November 12th, will handle all ticketing and access control for over 3 million expected visitors in a space of only a few months." explains Melinda Shishan, the Director of Sales & Marketing for OmniTicket Network. "Our multi-venue architecture and flexible packaging and distribution options makes OmniTicket a perfect fit for DUBAILAND™."

"We are proud to be the selected solution provider for Global Village, the first Tatweer venue in DUBAILAND™ which will be a milestone project in the history of the leisure and entertainment industry" says Mr. Paolo Moro, President and Chief Executive Officer of OmniTicket Network. Mr. Moro explains that OmniTicket Network plans on registering as a Dubai company based on the Global Village project and other opportunities in the expanding Dubai leisure industry.
